

Who do you need to exchange Direct messages with?

Tell us about the places and people you wish to exchange Direct messages with. Axesson can assist with identifying their Direct address and/or onboarding them to California Direct. Same as your everyday email, both parties need to have an address in order to communicate. Below we have provided a table for you to supply the places and people that you commonly exchange with.

Do you anticipate a need to send Direct messages to the VA or (DOD) in the future?  Yes  No  Unsure
